

Predicting

G Grammar P Punctuation S Spelling

Challenge 1

1 Read the extract below and then circle the possible events that could happen next.

There were three minutes left of the football game. The score was even: 2-2. As Anya ran with the ball, a defender tripped her and the whistle blew. When she stood up, Anya knew she had the chance to win the game with her free kick. She concentrated, ran towards the ball and kicked it more accurately and powerfully than she ever had before.

- She scored and her team won the match
- She fell over
- She missed the goal
- The referee stopped the game
- The goalkeeper saved the ball

Marks...../3

Challenge 2

1 Read these scenarios and predict what might happen next.

a) Sofia and Mei were excited about building sandcastles at the beach. As they began to set up their chairs, Sofia looked up and saw a big grey cloud.

What could happen next?

Predicting

b)

Mrs Morris was driving to work. With lots on her mind, she took her eyes off the road for just a second.

What could happen next?

2 marks

Marks...../2

Challenge 3

1 Read the extract below. Predict what you think may happen next. Write your prediction on the lines below.

Suzie picked up the brush and began to sweep the leaves as Mum had asked her.

"You can go and get an ice cream once you have finished," Suzie's Mum had told her. Ten minutes passed and she didn't seem to be getting anywhere with all the leaves. In the distance, Suzie heard a faint noise that grew louder and louder.

"Oh no, the ice cream van," she thought. Suzie glanced back at the house where Mum was ironing in the front room. "Maybe she won't mind if I go and get my ice cream first and then finish the yard," Suzie thought.

2 marks

Marks...../2

Total marks/7

How am I doing?

