Last week, St. Bernadette's hosted their first ever KS2 Battle of the Bands on TTRS. There was a huge uptake in the competition from children in KS2, and the battle became more heated as the week progressed. I have to say, I am not sure who was more competitive, the children or the staff 😊. Children at home, and in school, battled it out to be the first class ever to win the competition. In the end, Year 4 came out on top, with a whopping 50,903 points, with Year 5 second, Year 6 third and Year 3 in fourth place – well done, Year 4.

We would like to carry on this fabulous engagement from the children and so after half term, we will hold another battle to include Years 2-6 Boys v Girls. The children will be receive all the information from their class teachers.
