*When You Go Home
Tell Them Of Us And Say
For Your Tomorrow
We Gave Our Today*

We owe a huge debt of gratitude to Vinny, John, Steve, Mr & Mrs Duke and Mr Silcock who represented the Armed Forces during our Remembrance service, in school, on Thursday. Thank you also to Archie, Charlie, Jude and Nixon whose parents are presently in or have a connection to the Armed Forces and Samuel and Lyla, our Head Boy and Head Girl, who led the parade in school. Thank you to all our children who came forward to present the work completed in class. I was immensely proud of their impeccable manners and reverence; this was noted by the visitors. Talking to John, who fought in Iraq and lost two of his friends in the war, it was humbling to see how he wore his medals with pride and had such resilience; the children certainly saw our key word used in school in action.

The children understood why the day is of great significance, not only to remember the past but also to help safeguard the future.

Odd Socks Day

On Monday 15th November, we will be hosting Odd Socks Day! Children are encouraged to wear odd socks on Monday to express themselves and show they are unique. We are asking for a voluntary £1 donation to help raise money for the work of the Anti-Bullying Alliance. Please click here to find out more information

BIRTHDAYS

Apologies to Lola (Y4) who celebrated her birthday last week. Darci, Isaac (Y2), Brooke, Harry (Y3) & Zach (Y3) celebrate their birthdays this week, we hope they enjoy their day

Today is Mrs Morris' last day in school. Although Mrs Morris has not been with us very long, she has worked with Mrs Wells in the office and brought in new initiatives to support our school. I certainly will miss her never ending funny jokes and sense of humour and of course her professionalism! We thank her and wish her well on her new career path.

We have appointed a new administrative assistant to replace Mrs Morris and will introduce our new member of staff at a later date.

Congratulations

Scarlett for achieving 1st Place, Regional Top 5 in Follow Your Dreams Dancing Competition
Isabella E (Y3) for making her Brownie Promise
