Matilda the Musical Workshop—Year 3

Year 3 really enjoyed their Matilda workshop on Monday afternoon.

This was a fantastic opportunity and they had a brilliant time learning about the West End and all things musical theatre. During the workshop they used different techniques to create a fantastic short musical piece to the songs from Matilda the Musical.

Non Uniform Day

We will be having a non uniform day on Children's Mental Health Week Friday, 9th February. If you wish to make a donation, these will all go towards 'Elmers Big Parade' for Brian House. This can be done via ParentPay or alternatively you can send into school in an envelope.

Our Schools Alive cast recorded their songs this morning, they sounded incredible! Don't forget, St Bernadette's perform at the Opera House on Thursday, 8th February.

Can I ask you all to be mindful of the grass verges when parking on Devonshire Road at pick up and drop offs? With the heavy rainfall, parking on the grass verges has caused a lot of mud and destruction. Please can we park on the road instead where possible?
Thank you.

The academy consultation period closes on Friday, 9th February at 3pm. If you have any response or questions, please send to consultation@st-bernadette.blackpool.sch.uk

Elmer was collected from school yesterday morning by 'Elmers Big Parade Blackpool' ready to start the journey for Brian House & Trinity Hospice. Please remember you are able to donate via ParentPay or alternatively you can send the donation into school in an envelope. Keep your eyes peeled for more fundraising!

Please don't forget to pay for school lunches on ParentPay! You can set up auto top-up for school dinner balances, meaning a direct debit will be taken each time your child has a school meal.

Amelia Y5 was awarded 'Student of the Month' at her dance school. Amelia's dance teacher said she comes in to every lesson and gives 100% in everything she does. She recently took her ISTD ballet and modern exams and achieved the highest score out of all their students!
