October 28: Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Apostles

- Patron Saint of carriers & woodcutters

Farewell, Mrs Salisbury!

Today, we said farewell to one of our long serving colleagues. Mrs Salisbury has been at St Bernadette's for 22 years and as she has said, 'feels like I am part of the furniture.' We thank her from the bottom of our hearts for her commitment to school which has included going beyond and giving of her time freely, to lead the Choir and Schools Alive. Mrs Salisbury was presented with a 'box of memories' from children and staff, a voucher for the Grand Theatre, flowers and a St Bernadette's plaque and medal. To finish our assembly, the choir sang the hymn that they will be singing at the Advent service this year – a few tears were shed. We will certainly miss her smiley face and positive outlook; we wish her well in her new adventure.

Thank you, Mrs Salisbury for always 'Doing your best for God' so the children at St Bernadette's could thrive.

Well done to our football team on Wednesday. Although we did not win the match, the children played very well, worked together as a team and kept up a great level of enthusiasm. The other school's coach even commented on how well the children played as a team.

As part of 'The Bulb Project' by the Museum of Wales, Year 3 have planted some daffodil and crocus bulbs. The investigation involves planting, observing and keeping weather records in order to study the effects of climate change. Well done, Year 3!

You should have all received an email or text today to book your appointment for Parent Conferences on Monday 25th & Tuesday 26th November. If you need to reschedule your appointment once booked, you can do so by clicking on the original booking link. If you need any help, please contact the school office. Thank you.
