Christmas Festivities

Today has been such a lovely, festive last day of term! First we had the Elf Run this morning, the children all looked brilliant in their festive outfits. The school hall was filled with joy and laughter at lunchtime as the children gathered for their Christmas dinner. The younger ones sat together, excitedly enjoying their festive meal, while the Year 6 helpers played a wonderful role helping out by giving out juice and assisting the little ones. We hope you all have the most lovely Christmas and New Year.

Today, we say goodbye to Mrs. Kirkpatrick. She was presented with a theatre voucher, flowers, a musical themed mug and 'Queen' of the choir bag. We thank her for dedication to school and wish her well in her new venture

A huge thank you to Father Peter and the parishioners from St Peter's in Lytham and St Joseph's in Ansdel who have donated items for our families at Christmas.

The Year 6 reward System

This half term, the following children received their 'bronze band award' for consistently living out their faith in school. The Year 6 reward system is rooted in our Gospel Values (Forgiveness, peace, kindness, happiness, respect, love and friendship) and is designed to encourage an excellent attitude to learning, faith in action and a desire for continual self-improvement.

Florence, Jasmine, Nancy, Harry C, Annabel, Bella, Jayden, Lexi, Lucy, Libby, Jacob K, Lilly, Jessica, Izabella, Amelia & Harry Y.

Thank you to Sophie B Y5 for your contribution of books to the school library, very thoughtful.
