Dear Parent/Carer

Our recent Ofsted report has now been published, please click on the link here to open the report from our website. I am delighted to be able to share this report with you as I think that it reflects especially well on our school community.

When I wrote my welcome on the school website 8 years ago, I stated "All pupils are made welcome at SEA and we strive to make their time at our school productive, inspiring, engaging and most of all, happy". I am delighted that the first sentence of the Ofsted report recognises that our pupils are happy here, as we all work so hard to make this a lived reality.

Whenever I get the opportunity to express my pride in our school I do so, as I am extremely proud of all the efforts that our pupils, parents, staff and governors make on a daily basis. It is this collaboration that creates the special environment that is St Edmund Arrowsmith Catholic High School. I am especially proud of the way in which we have all worked together over the last two years to overcome the additional challenges that have arisen.

Thank you for everything that you do to support our joint venture which is to provide the best possible education for our young people, it is always greatly appreciated.
