A Word of Thanks

After a grand total of 26 years as, at various times, Sacristan, Eucharistic Minister, Marriage Registrar, and Flower Arranger, Iris Tinsley has decided that the time has now come for her to hand over her responsibilities and step down. It is easy for us at times to forget how much time and effort goes into preparing the Church week by week for Mass, most of unseen, and heaven alone knows how many hours Iris must have put in over the years making sure everything was in the right place. We are certainly greatly indebted to her for her faithfulness and dedication, and hope that she will now be able to come to Mass in peace without worrying whether anything has been forgotten. Thank you, Iris!
