

The World Book Day door competition

The competition gathers Y8 classes and allows them to get a break from comprehension and writing to have some fun, making a design for their classroom doors.

