WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

The Chorley Churches Network is holding a service of prayer to celebrate the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity at Living Waters Church on Friday, 21st January. It will start with a 'cuppa' and a chat at 9:30am at Cafe Connect and then move to the adjoining church hall for a prayer service. Everybody is most welcome to come along, please spread the word.

SVP CHORLEY BUDDIES - ACTIVITY BUDDIES

For nearly 18 months now, SVP Chorley Buddies have been putting on exercise, craft and social events but led by experienced leaders, for people who have been isolating, fallen out of the exercise routine and want to do a bit more - to socialise a bit more, to get a bit fitter! It's all free, but we do accept donations so we can keep this going for as long as possible. The sessions are open to all ages and genders. For further information on the programme of events for the 1st Quarter of 2022, please see the church noticeboard. All welcome.

TREE PLANTING AT ST GREGORY'S

Following a successful bid to the Woodland Trust, we have been awarded 315 'all year round colour' saplings which are due to arrive by the 18th March 2022. As part of the application, we have been asked to organise a planting event and with this in mind please can I ask for volunteers to work as part of a team to undertake the planting. The date for the event has not yet been set but will be sometime shortly after 18th March.

Please let me know if you are interested in taking part.

REFLECTION

This Wednesday marks the start of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, a time when Christians from many different traditions across the globe join together to try to heal divisions and to pray for greater unity. Although it is recognised that there are significant differences among denominations in terms of beliefs, practices and structures, and that there is still much work to do to recognise Christ's vision 'that all may be one', it is also recognised that Christian congregations share common callings.

Today's Gospel from St John is one of the most well-known - the story of the Wedding at Cana, and as with many epics, the heroes of today's Gospel are not necessarily the main characters of Jesus, his mother and the disciples, but the props - in this case the six stone water jars. Whilst props have practical functions, they can also serve as metaphors that can deepen a plot's meaning. In this story, the water jars may be seen as a metaphor for Christian congregations - like the stone water jars in today's gospel, Jesus calls us as congregations to offer space for coming together. Those six stone water jars were the containers in which the servers could collect all the water needed for the ceremonial washings - and later, the miracle. However, a drop here or a splash there is not nearly as powerful as twenty to thirty gallons of liquid together in one space. Similarly, Christian life is strengthened when we come together as a community.

Congregations offer spaces within their walls, in their neighbourhoods, and even online to come together in a shared mission. Like the stone water jars, Jesus calls congregations to support spiritual transformation. As Jesus commands the servers to 'fill the jars with water', a transformation happens inside those jars, the site of Jesus' first miracle. Similarly, spiritual transformations happen inside our sanctuaries and holy spaces, offering vessels of hope for a world in need of some miracles. Jesus is at work within congregations big and small, Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox, and many more who keep the hope of the resurrection alive, who time and again answer Christ's call to spark faith in others.
