

A THANK YOU MESSAGE FROM FR GRAEME

A big thank you to all for the many cards, gifts and good wishes received and for your generosity over the Easter period. Despite the unusual times we still find ourselves in, our services were well attended. Sincere thanks to all those who prepared and took part in our liturgies which we were able to conduct safely and with reverence.

God Bless
Fr Graeme

REFLECTION

Poor Thomas! Maybe we all too quickly dismiss him for his doubting and apparent lack of faith because looking at it another way, he is really a very good role model for us all. Our faith and belief ultimately cannot be based on blind acceptance or what others have seen and believed, valid as this may be for them. Our believing during this Easter season and our whole life must be grounded in a deep and personal relationship with God. It is true, none of us go through life without struggles and doubts - we are all walking wounded in one way or another. There are times when we are all at our lowest and weakest for various reasons. These are the times when we can repeat the words of Thomas and refuse to believe that Jesus is really with us. However, just as Jesus was with Thomas, so Jesus is with us. He is with us in those who reach out to comfort and support us, when we reach out to help and care for others and as we gather in our communities for the breaking and sharing of the bread. When we are struggling to believe and our faith is weak - that's when we need to ask for God's help. It is natural and even ok to have doubts. We all have them and there is also a natural human impulse to hide our wounds. But Jesus did not try to hide his wounds, nor did he condemn Thomas for his questioning doubt -neither does he condemn us. What we are called to do is not to give in or give up on Jesus, but to turn to him as Thomas did. When we have doubts, can we echo and repeat the ancient prayer of Thomas, 'My Lord and my God'? Today's Gospel invites us to consider the wounds we live with and to ask for courage and help. When we show our wounds, trust is built - truth is spoken - connections are forged. Jesus shares our human experience of being the walking wounded. Unashamed and offering peace, he reveals himself, allowing his wounds to be seen and touched and known. Today let us like Thomas reach out in faith to the risen Christ and offer up our prayers in faith and hope as we pray: 'My Lord and my God'

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

WEEKLY REVIEW OF COVID REQUIREMENTS

Following a further review of Covid requirements, it has been decided that given the major source of transmission of the virus is now generally accepted to be via airborne particulates (according to scientific evidence), both the weekly collection and also the Offertory Procession can now be reintroduced. For the time being we will continue to keep a section of the church with social distancing and also the practice of sanitising on entry and the presence of stewards. We will continue to review the situation on a weekly basis.

MASS OF WELCOME

Next Sunday I am pleased to announce that we are able to reintroduce the Mass of Welcome. At both morning Masses, the families with children who are to be baptised during this coming year will be welcomed into our Parish Communities. Please keep them all in your prayers. Baptisms take place at 1:00pm on the 1st, 2nd and 4th Sundays of the month at St Gregory's and at 12:15pm on the 3rd Sunday of the month at St Oswald's.

If you would like to have your child baptised, please see Fr Graeme after one of the Sunday Masses. Thank you.

DAY OF DIVINE MERCY - SUNDAY 24th APRIL 2022

Divine Mercy Sunday (also known as the Feast of the Divine Mercy) is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter and concludes the Octave of Easter. It is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church.

There will be a Divine Mercy Service this afternoon at Sacred Heart Church, Chorley. The service will begin with Devotions at 3:00 pm, followed by the Divine Mercy Novena (with opportunity for individual Confession) and Mass. Fr Ball and parishioners extend a warm welcome to all in other parishes to join them in Prayer.
