THE ROMAN CATHOLIC PARISH OF St Gregory's Weld Bank

27th March 2022 - Fourth Sunday of Lent, Year C - Laetare Sunday

REFLECTION

Today, the Fourth Sunday of Lent, traditionally called Laetare Sunday from the Latin word that means 'rejoice', we hear the parable of 'A Prodigal son - A Forgiving Father' – a story we have heard so many times that many of us can repeat it almost line for line. The three characters in the parable, the younger son, elder son, and their father, together weave a beautiful story of sin, envy, and mercy. We hear it today because midway through Lent, the liturgy reflects that we are all like this prodigal son, the well-known story striking a familiar chord in the lives of all of us - in the temptation to squander a bright future on the passions of the present or the sadness when we have made bad choices; in scheming and plotting ways out of trouble; in the longing that parents feel for children who fail; in the jealousy within families the list is endless! Yet, most of us in our highly developed western world have difficulty in seeing ourselves for who we really are - our lives are so very busy that there never seems to be enough time for personal reflection. Consequently, we can find ourselves being seriously lacking in some areas of our personal development – and even worse, the failure to recognise this. Often, it is only when something really serious happens in our life, that we realise that we are in dire need of outside help to make things better or right! As we reach the mid-point of our Lenten journey, today we are invited to rejoice as we recognise the joy that will be ours if we come to our senses and if we wholeheartedly turn to God and ask for mercy. We need to recognise the patterns of our sin - we may not like some aspects of the person we are and we may want to be the person we imagine. So during Lent we must repent, do penance, strengthen our prayer, contribute to the needy, and fast from all that focuses attention on ourselves in order to consider more the needs of others. Like the prodigal son, we too must say to ourselves, 'I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you'. The forgiveness of the father in the parable is an image of God's forgiveness and abounding love for us, and it reminds us that God's love for another does not diminish his love for each of us.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

WEEKLY REVIEW OF COVID REQUIREMENTS

Following a further review of Covid requirements, it has been decided that given the major source of transmission of the virus is now generally accepted to be via airborne particulates (according to scientific evidence), both the weekly collection and also the Offertory Procession can now be reintroduced. For the time being we will continue to keep a section of the church with social distancing and also the practice of sanitising on entry and the presence of stewards. We will continue to review the situation on a weekly basis.

HOLY WEEK 2022

This will be the first time we have celebrated the Triduum as a family of Parishes with one Parish Priest. From past experience, and with the needs of both communities in mind, I have decided this year to celebrate Maundy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper (7:00pm) at St Oswald's; Good Friday, the Passion of the Lord (3:00pm) and the Easter Vigil Service (8:30pm) at St Gregory's. I would hope that transport can be arranged for those who need it to attend either church, please let me know if this is required. There will be an opportunity to assess these arrangements in the near future.

NUGENT APPEAL

There will be a second collection today to support Nugent, the official Archdiocesan caring service. This year marks the 200th anniversary of its founder, Fr. James Nugent. Inspired by his work to educate children in Liverpool, support women prisoners in Walton prison and care for the poor, his legacy continues with Nugent today. Thank you in advance for your support.

LENTEN SERVICE OF RECONCILIATION

There will be a Service of Reconciliation with individual confessions on Sunday 3rd April at 3:00pm at St Gregory's, Weld Bank.
 All are welcome to attend.

LENTEN SONGS OF PRAISE

. There will be a Lenten Songs of Praise followed by Benediction today at 3:00pm.
