Saint of the Week

St. Paulinus of York

A Roman monk, Paulinus was named by St. Gregory the Great to accompany SS. Justus and Meltitus on their mission to England to advance the cause of evangelization undertaken by St. Augustine. Paulinus laboured for 24 years in Kent and was ordained bishop in 625. He was also responsible for advancing Christianity in Northumbria, baptising the pagan king Edwin on Easter 627, and then converting thousands of other Northumbrians. Driven from his see by pagan Mercians in 633, Paulinus returned to Kent with the dead King's widow Ethelburga, her two children and Edwin's grandson Osfrid.
Paulinus then became bishop of Rochester, where he stayed till his death in 644.

Synod Sunday coming soon. PTO for notice.

Canonisation of Archbishop Oscar Romero on 14th October by the Holy Father in Rome

So that many people can join in the spirit of thanksgiving for the life and witness of Archbishop Romero, Archbishop Malcolm will celebrate Mass at the Metropolitan Cathedral on Sunday 28th October at 11.00am. All are invited to attend.

Oscar Romero was Archbishop of San Salvador in El Salvador. In standing up for the poor and speaking out against social injustice and oppression, he was assassinated while saying Mass on 24th March 1980. A specially commissioned bust of Blessed Oscar Romero, created by Rory Young, was installed in our Cathedral last year and is now on permanent display. A special prayer card in memory of the soon to be new saint will be available soon.

Blessed Archbishop Romero, pray for us!

'50 Faces' of the Holy Land is a photographic exhibition commissioned by the Bishops of England & Wales to highlight and promote the lives of the faithful in Israel, Gaza and the Occupied Territories. The photographs taken by Marcin Mazur show how the faces of people are marked with the history, diversity, joys and sufferings of the Holy Land. Each face tells a story. Each person, a memory. The exhibition has been shown at the Balfour Conference, Clifton Cathedral and recently in the Houses of Parliament. It will be displayed in the Metropolitan Cathedral from Sunday 29th September - Sunday 21st October. Archbishop Patrick will celebrate Mass in the Cathedral on Wednesday 17th October at 5.15 p.m. for the intention of the Christians of the Holy Land. All are welcome.
