Dear Parents/Carers.

Head Teacher: Mr M. Mountcastle

As you are aware, Mr Mountcastle will be leaving St Hugh's after 16 years as our Headteacher. We are sad to see him go as he has had such a positive impact on our children, school and parish.

As a celebration of his commitment and dedication to St Hugh's, the school will be holding two events that are open for families, both past and present and members of the community/parish to attend.

A School Mass will be held at St Hugh of Lincoln Parish Church on the Friday 15th of July at 9.30am.

On Sunday the 17th of July at 2pm, the school will hold a 'Picnic in the Playground'. Families are invited to bring a picnic. Tables will be set out on the playground (weather permitting – if not in the school hall) and a bar will be set up to buy refreshments. There will also be bouncy castles and an ice cream van.

We would love for you to join us to say a farewell to Mr Mountcastle and wish him well on his new adventure.

Yours sincerely

Mr Smith and Mrs Atherton
