

Thoughts with Jesus

You can't stop God from loving you, though you may disobey Him.

You can't stop God from loving you, however you betray Him.

A love like this, no power on earth the human heart can sever.

You can't stop God from loving you, not God not now nor never!

Sunday's mass teaches us just how giving God is with His love. Indeed, He loves us so very much that we can never stop Him from endlessly loving and forgiving us. No matter what we may do, now or when we are grown up, He will always love us. Even if we turn away from Him, Jesus will patiently wait for us with His tender, welcoming, arms wide open. Our Lord knows every bit of us. He sees all of our goodness and He forgives any unkindness. We could never earn His beautiful love and grace, it is simply a wonderful gift! We cannot completely understand how big Jesus' love for us is, or why we have been chosen to be His own, very special, children. However, we know that He will be our best, and most faithful, friend forever. Where ever we may go, from the highest mountain to the deepest sea, Our Lord will be there; taking every step with us. So, let us thank Him for His amazing love and pray that we will never forsake Him. Let us make a promise today, to try our very best to follow Jesus every day in everything we say and do.
