Transforming reading progress for every child in every school

A guide to Read Write Inc. Phonics resources

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

What is Read Write Inc.?

Developed by Ruth Miskin, Read Write Inc. provides a whole-school approach to teaching literacy that ensures consistency across a child's primary years.

Resources are published by Oxford University Press and professional development is provided by Ruth Miskin Training.

“Read Write Inc. Phonics has transformed our school and the impact on standards has been beyond all of our expectations.”

Gemma Parsley, Deputy Headteacher, Riverside Primary School, Wirral

Ruth Miskin Training gives you the skills and confidence to reach every child using the Read Write Inc. programmes.

Ruth Miskin's team of experienced regional trainers helps you to develop an expert team of reading teachers to deliver long term success for your school and your pupils.

Find out more about training options at www.ruthmiskin.com

Ruth Miskin Training offers a blended CPD package to help you teach children how to read and write. This includes:

- an Online Training subscription giving year round access to training and practice films, tutoring support, Reading Leader resources and much more
- the Virtual Classroom, part of the Online Training subscription, with over 600 Speed Sound lessons that can be sent home for extra practice
- expert face-to-face training and support through Development Days, where a trainer works with the leadership team to help all children make speedy progress
- remote termly progress meetings to discuss data and decide next steps.

Used in over 5,000 UK Primary schools, Read Write Inc. Phonics is a DfE validated Systematic Synthetic Phonics programme with a whole school approach to teaching early reading and writing, designed to ensure progress for every child, in every primary school.

Integrated comprehension, writing, grammar, spelling, vocabulary and handwriting means that Read Write Inc. is more than just a phonics programme and helps develop key literacy skills for every child.

“It’s a whole-school approach, so groups can stay small and teaching is pitched perfectly at the ‘Goldilocks Spot’ – not too hard, not too easy.”

Kelly Woodcraft, Reader Leader, Long Close School, Slough

Assessment

Children are assessed and grouped according to their phonic knowledge. Each child is then taught at the level of their phonic knowledge to ensure quick progress.

1

Teaching sounds

The 44 sounds and corresponding letters are introduced and taught systematically.

Levelled progression

Ongoing assessment means that any struggling children are picked up the moment they fall behind and if necessary given intensive one-to-one tutoring to catch up fast. Groups are adjusted regularly so all children make the best progress.

Teaching Words

Children learn to blend sounds to read words. Then they use short 'ditties' to practise early reading and writing before being taught more letter-sound correspondences.

Home-school link

For extra practice at home, teachers can send home the My Speed Sounds Books, black and white versions of the Storybooks and full-colour fiction and non-fiction Book Bag Books, to reinforce children's classroom learning. This ensures the books sent home are matched to the phonics children are practising in class. Home Learning Kits, with resources designed to be used at home, are also available to buy.

Developing reading and writing

Children read a series of levelled decodable texts, both fiction and non-fiction, and complete integrated writing activities including spelling, grammar, vocabulary and handwriting practice.

The screenshot shows the Read Write Inc. Phonics website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Home' and 'Teaching Handbooks'. The main header features the 'Read Write Inc. Phonics' logo and social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest. Below the header, a central text block describes the program as a whole-school approach for children aged 4 to 9, focusing on creating fluent readers and confident speakers. It highlights interactive lessons and an online subscription with planning and assessment support. A grid of phonics cards is displayed, featuring a young boy holding a book titled 'Danny and the Bump-a-lump' and various phonics cards with letters like 'oo', 'ar', 'or', 'air', 'oy', and 'th'. Below the grid, there are three featured sections: 'Support for parents' with a link to eBooks, 'NEW resource' about a 33-page guide for Reception teachers, and 'Daily phonics videos' with a link to Ruth Miskin Training's YouTube channel. The Ruth Miskin Training logo is visible in the bottom right corner.

Important note

Read books to your children that are beyond the level they can read for themselves – every evening. They'll only want to become readers if they experience the joy of listening to a range of stories, non-fiction and poetry. Very soon, they will be able to read those books for themselves, as well as listen to them.

Vocabulary check

Tell your child the meaning of each word in the context of the book.

	definition:	sentence:
space centre	a place where you can learn about space	Welcome to the space centre.
orbit	travel around	... find out about the planets that orbit the Sun.
spacecraft	a vehicle that travels through space	Even with the fastest spacecraft ...
exploration	travelling through an unknown area to learn about it	... exploration of all the planets ...
gravity	a heavy pull	The Sun's gravity pulls them in ...
gas	not solid or liquid, like air	... Jupiter and Saturn, are both mainly made of gas.
rubble	pieces of rock	... rings of dust and rubble.

Welcome to the space centre. Today we'll find out about the planets that orbit the Sun. They are very far away. Even with the fastest spacecraft, exploration of all the planets would mean a really long flight!

Reinforce classroom learning

An annual subscription to the new eBook library on Oxford Owl for School includes:

- 95 core Storybooks from Sound Blending through to Grey
- 14 non-fiction eBooks from Green to Grey
- end-of-book quizzes for every eBook with four activities to practise a range of skills including phonics, spelling, sequencing and vocabulary
- 107 assignable interactive activities for phonics practice at home, covering Speed Sounds Sets 1, 2 and 3, Green Words and all the Red Words.

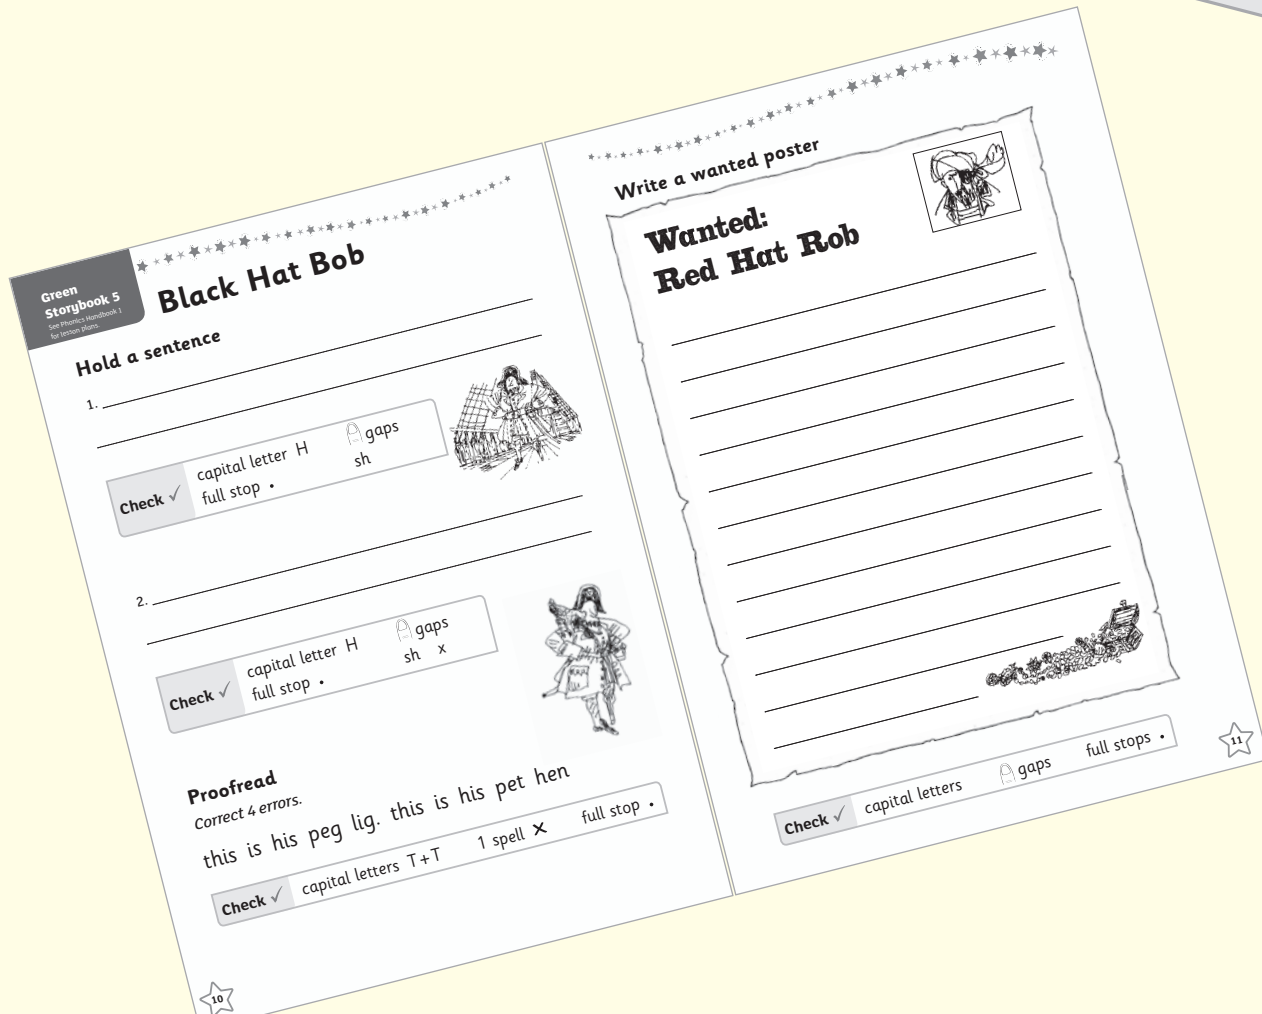

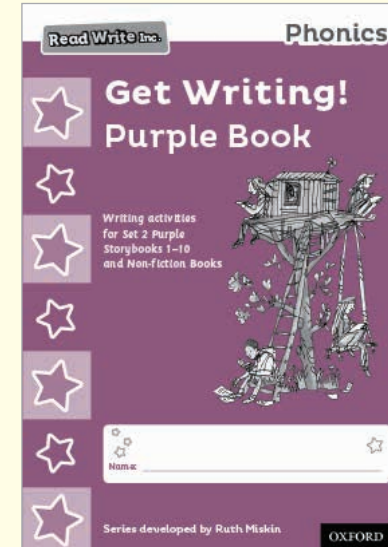

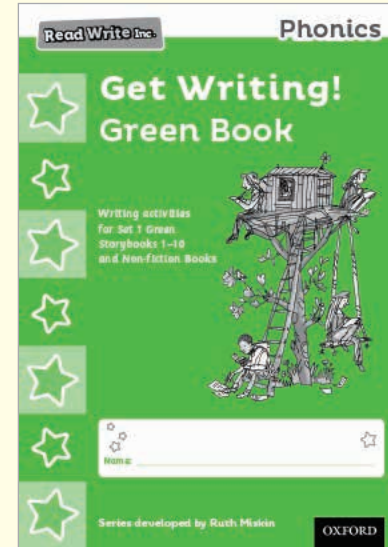

Teachers can assign eBooks to individual pupils, groups of pupils, or a whole class, and track what they have read, helping to ensure that they are reading books at exactly the right phonic level.

Get Writing! Books contain a range of writing activities for each of the Storybooks.

Step-by-step guidance helps children move from writing simple sentences to extended texts.
