Grammar

This week, we have been learning about question marks and when to use them in our writing.

- We know that sentences can end in a full stop.
- When we want to write a question, we need to use a question mark at the end.

Picture

Dad reminds us that sometimes we need to use a question mark to finish our sentence to show that it is a question.

Action

Swirl a pretend cloth round and down. Dab a dot.

Activity

Can you read the question below? Circle the question mark.

How many wheels are there on Kit's bike?
