

It's Friday again!

It has been a wonderful week; the children have wowed me with their work ethic and their enthusiasm. I never take this for granted and continue to be so proud of our children and the staff, who work so hard to engage them in their learning and support them and meet all their varied needs. Amazing!

Enrichment started this afternoon and the children were so excited to start their new short course. Exciting!

We listened to Father's message on Monday where, he spoke to us about Sunday's Gospel and how we have to practise forgiving others. The children are incredible in how they listen to our Monday worship, take on board its message and then live that out in the classroom, playground and no doubt at home too! Another reason to be proud!

I will be sending home our first key dates calendar for the year, which we continue to add to as we go through the school year. You will notice Christmas is covered so you can start to plan for Nativities, Advent service etc. Impressive!

I want to take the opportunity to say a heartfelt thank you to our wonderful PTFA who, met for the annual AGM on Wednesday. What they achieve is truly impressive and has a huge impact on what we are able to offer our children. They understand, that for some, it is tricky to attend meetings but ask that you please consider if you are able to help support events. You will notice from the calendar that we have a number of events planned for the rest of the term, including our very successful Christmas Fair. Organised!

Have a lovely weekend and Year 6, remember some early nights, ready for your trip to Castlerigg Manor next week!

God bless,
Mrs G-R x

The poster features a whimsical autumn scene. At the top left, a tree with vibrant red and orange leaves stands against a light blue sky with a small white cloud. In the center, a scarecrow in a straw hat and floral shirt stands in a field. In the foreground, three children are depicted: a girl on the left wearing a blue beanie and a yellow coat, pushing a red wheelbarrow filled with various fruits; a boy in the middle with glasses and a blue shirt, holding a carrot; and a girl on the right with dark hair, sitting on the grass and holding a basket of fruit. The overall style is colorful and child-friendly.

LOWTHER CREATIVES

Develop skills. Be creative. Make friends.

Children's Theatre Workshop (4-6 years)
Mondays 4.00pm-5.30pm

Children use imagination, discuss ideas, dress up, create scenes, characters and stories to perform and share with each other as well as families and friends! Sessions often include activities such as drawing, making, and movement as a stimulus. We introduce awareness of audience and performance skills mixed with fun and creative play.

Junior Youth Theatre (6-10 years)
Saturdays 9.30am-11.00am.
Saturdays 1.30pm-3.00pm

Juniors develop drama skills, confidence and creativity. Take part in exciting performance opportunities, play games, make friends, create shows and become part of a lively, welcoming group. This session is popular, so we run two groups each Saturday.

Senior Youth Theatre (11-18 year olds)
Saturdays 11.00am-1.00pm

Seniors improvise and write, creating devised and scripted work to perform on stage or other spaces. We build drama skills, confidence, creativity, making friends. We aim to combine safety, respect and welcome, with fun and humour. Seniors take part in National Theatre Connections each year, with performances onstage at local and regional venues. All groups cost £5 each week. No auditions or experience necessary.
