

Dear Parent/Guardian

We have had all extremes of weather this week and it really has felt like winter is on its way with the darker nights and having to dig out hats and gloves again. The children have been incredible this week, settling back into routines and really engaging with all their learning. I have been so proud to show a number of perspective families around the school and all have commented on the calm atmosphere, the polite, well behaved and happy children and how enthusiastic they are about their learning. Each classroom visited has been buzzing about an area of learning from poetry, to writing, to science, PE and RE. Wonderful!

You will have received information regarding our Autumn Term Workshops, which are on Thursday 6.30-7.45pm. This term, we are focusing on phonics, reading and HRSE but will then seek your views on what you would like the focus to be for our Spring Term Workshops. Please do try to attend, we would love to share with you how we teach these areas of learning and support you in supporting your children. The kettle will be on and there will be biscuits in the barrel!

Next week we have football competitions, clubs, Shakespeare Schools events, as well as Bikeability and a trip to the Grand Theatre for our Year 5/6 children—we were trying to pace ourselves through a long half term but in true St Peter's style, we decided to go for it!

Rest up over the weekend—join us for family mass at St Peter's if possible and we will see you Monday morning ready for another productive and happy week.

God Bless,
Mrs G-R x

DANCE FESTIVAL

We have been invited to take part in the Wyre & Fylde Dance Festival again. The Y3 children are currently developing a dance, on the theme of Heroes and Heroines, with the help of our dance teacher Holly. This is part of their curriculum PE lessons. The Festival is a wonderful celebration for all the schools that take part and the children who took part last year absolutely loved it. Tickets have been released and I would encourage you to purchase them as soon as possible, to avoid disappointment as it will be a sell out
