

Dear Parent/Carer

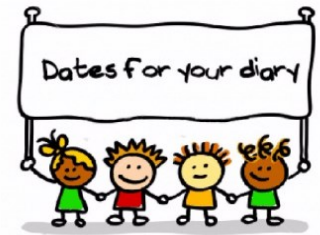

Have we really only been back a week?! Goodness, it has been a busy one! Thank you to Father Peter for joining us on Monday for our Ashes service. It feels like we have only just packed away the crib and we are already in Lent! The children have been thinking about how they can pray, give and fast during this special season in the church's calendar.

Information will be coming out next week regarding our CAFOD Big Lent Walk which will be led by our Mini Vinnie group. You may remember last year, our older children walked to Lytham Hall and younger ones walked up and down Green Drive. The children really enjoyed it and it was a time full of chat, fresh air and gratefulness.

World Book Day will be upon us very soon. Last year, we had a break from the traditional book character dress up but the children and a number of parents were disappointed, so we decided that we would go ahead with it this year. I recognise that for some this causes some panic and stress, especially if you are like me and can only just about sew a button on! Therefore, we suggest a book character and book or pjs/comfy clothes and a bedtime story book. I have managed to be creative, picking out and adapting things in my wardrobe to match a character in one of my favourite books, helping to keep costs down. It will be a lovely day celebrating our love of books here at St Peter's.

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs G-R
