

Questions (over 7 lessons

Remember – name and find the 7 continents and 5 oceans of the world.

Where is the equator?

Where is hot and where is cold on the Earth?

Where are the North and South Poles?

What are they like?

Where can I find hot countries? What are they like?

Summary – where are hot and cold areas of the world?

Key Vocabulary

Tier 2	Tier 3
Location	Continent
Moist	Ocean
Misty	Polar
Scorched	Equator
Freezing	Temperate
Tropical	Compass

Big ideas/Substantive Concepts

Human and physical geography

- identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom
- identify the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles

Sources

Cusp Curriculum
Curriculum Visions

Year 1 Hot and cold areas of the world

ELG: People, Culture and Communities

ELG: The Natural World

Year 1- Introduce UK countries, capital cities, continents and oceans

Year 1 -Revisit countries, capital cities, continents and oceans

Disciplinary Knowledge - thinking like a geographer

Place and space	Scale and connection	Physical and human geography	Environment and sustainability	Culture and diversity
Where is the North Pole? Where is the South Pole? Where is a hot place in the world? Where are the cold places in the world? What does Arctic mean? What does Antarctic mean?	Why are the North and South Poles similar? Why are the North and South Poles different? Is the UK bigger or smaller than the Arctic or Antarctic?	What do physical features look like in polar places? What do physical features look like in hot or tropical places? What do human features look like in polar places? What do human features look like in hot or tropical places? What is different?	What's the weather like in polar places? What's the weather like in hot places? How are polar places changing? Why is the Arctic and Antarctic changing? What are causing the Arctic and Antarctic to change?	What is life like for the people who live in very cold places, such as polar regions? What is life like for people who live in hot places, such as the tropics? What is similar? What is different?