Power

Pupils develop an understanding of the concept of POWER through:

- knowing and explaining how, over time, technology had the power to change the way people lived their lives through shopping

- knowing and explaining how significant people had the power and determination to change the way people thought and behaved. For example, Mae Jemison experienced racism, but became the first African America woman to become an astronaut
- knowing and explaining how significant people, such as David Attenborough, have the power and determination to help us understand more about the incredible world we live in and how to care for it better

- knowing how significant people used what they knew to change the way we understand science or history. For example, Samuel Pepys helped us know more about the Great Fire of London through his diary

- knowing that people with power don't always make the right decisions, such as the Lord Mayor of London, Thomas Bludworth, fled the city instead of helping fight the fire

- knowing and explaining how power is connected to knowledge, technology and trade - it can be used to make communities, kingdoms or civilisations more stable and better places to live, such as aqueducts built by the Romans

- Knowing and understanding why inventions, such as metalwork, writing or irrigation gave leaders the power to control and influence
- knowing and explaining the reasons why people exerted force and power over others, such as Roman invasions of Britain

- knowing and explaining how power is connected to knowledge, technology and trade - it can be used to make communities, kingdoms or civilisations more stable and better places to live, such as irrigation from the River Nile

- Knowing and understanding why inventions, such as metalwork, writing or irrigation gave leaders the power to control and influence
- knowing and explaining the reasons why people exerted force and power over others, such as the Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the kingdom of England

- knowing and explaining how power is connected to knowledge, belief, technology and trade - it was used to make city- states or civilisations stable and better places to live, such as writing and number systems invented by the Maya
- knowing and explaining that the power to build great buildings, such as the Parthenon in Athens or Maya pyramids, brought people together through a shared belief
- Knowing and understanding why inventions, such as metalwork, writing, astronomy or irrigation gave leaders the power to control and influence

- knowing and explaining how power is connected to knowledge, technology and trade – it can be used positively or negatively

- knowing and explaining how the power to build and change communities positively, such as the Notting Hill carnival, happened
- knowing and explaining that the power to change things doesn't guarantee success – Hitler's decision to start the Second World War
- knowing and explaining the reasons why people exerted force and power over others, such as Henry VIII's decision to create the Church of England and dissolve the monasteries

Democracy Pupils develop an understanding of the concept of DEMOCRACY through:	- knowing and explaining that in the past, people in power were not always chosen by the people <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing and explaining that in the past, some women didn't always have the same rights or status as men – Mary Anning • knowing and explaining that sometimes people are not treated fairly 	-knowing and explaining how certain people in the past had power to make decisions, such as kings, queens and mayors, for example <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing that in the past, people in power were not always chosen by the people • knowing that the way people ruled has changed over time • explaining that democracy is a fair way of deciding who should be in charge 	- knowing and explaining how leaders ruled communities, kingdoms and civilisations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing how laws and rules shaped and influenced how leaders, kings and queens controlled communities, kingdoms and civilisations • knowing and explaining about hierarchies within communities, kingdoms and civilisations 	knowing and explaining how leaders ruled communities, kingdoms and civilisations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing how laws and rules shaped and influenced how leaders, kings and queens controlled communities, kingdoms and civilisations • knowing and explaining about hierarchies within communities, kingdoms and civilisations 	knowing and explaining how leaders ruled civilisations through early democracy in Athens <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing how laws and rules shaped and influenced how leaders, kings and queens controlled city-states, kingdoms or civilisations, such as the Sparta • knowing and explaining how leaders, kings and queens ruled using beliefs, knowledge and power to control people, such as in Maya city-states • knowing and explaining about hierarchies within communities, kingdoms and civilisations 	knowing and explaining how different kings and queens ruled and controlled power <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • knowing how laws and rules shaped and influenced how leaders, kings and queens controlled kingdoms, such as William the Conqueror in 1066 • knowing and explaining about hierarchies within communities and kingdoms • knowing and explaining how the Windrush generation fought for their democratic rights to live in the UK

Invasion

Pupils develop an understanding of the concept of INVASION through:

knowing and explaining how power, knowledge and technology helped leaders invade and forcibly take places and resources from others, such as the Roman invasions of Britain

- knowing and explaining what caused leaders to invade other places, such as wanting to get better resources
- knowing and explaining that invasion required resources and knowledge, such as weapons, ships, armies, and navigation
- knowing and explaining that invasion can be between countries across the world as well as invading another village or tribe

knowing and explaining how power, knowledge and technology helped leaders invade and forcibly take places and resources from others, such as the settlement of Anglo-Saxons in Britain or the Norman invasion of Britain

- knowing and explaining what caused leaders to invade other places, such as wanting to control resources, for example, iron ore or tin
- knowing and explaining that invasion required resources and knowledge, such as weapons, ships, armies, and navigation
- knowing and explaining that invasion can be between countries across the world as well as invading another village or tribe

knowing and explaining how power, knowledge and technology helped leaders invade and forcibly take places and resources from others, such as the expansion of the Greek Empire

- knowing and explaining what caused leaders to invade other places, including to defeat and control enemies, such as the Ancient Greek conflicts with the Persians
- knowing and explaining that invasion required resources and knowledge, such as weapons, technology, armies and strategy, such as Battle of Marathon or Salamis

knowing and explaining how power, knowledge and technology helped leaders invade and forcibly take places and resources from others, such as the invasion of Poland by Hitler's Nazi Germany

- knowing and explaining what caused leaders to invade other places, including to defeat and control enemies, such as Queen Elizabeth I's war with Spain.
- knowing and explaining that invasion required resources and knowledge, such as weapons, technology, armies and strategy, such as the Battle of Britain (Y5/6)

Civilisation

Pupils develop an understanding of the concept of CIVILISATION through:

knowing and explaining how leaders and beliefs shaped how people lived their lives with common beliefs, language, laws and ways of doing things, such as Roman rule in Britain

- knowing and understanding how the decisions and actions of leaders can create both powerful or unstable and poor civilisations, such as in Rome
- knowing and explaining the causes and effects that led to civilisations rising and falling, such as in Rome

knowing and explaining how leaders and beliefs shaped how people lived their lives with common beliefs, language, laws and ways of doing things, such as ancient Egyptians or Shang Dynasty

- knowing and understanding how the decisions and actions of leaders, along with environmental conditions can create both powerful or unstable and poor civilisations, such as the three declines during the ancient Egyptian civilisation
- knowing and explaining the causes and effects that led to civilisations rising, such as in the reign of Rameses II, and falling when weak and divided pharaohs led the civilisation

knowing and explaining how leaders and beliefs shaped how people lived their lives with common beliefs, language, laws and ways of doing things, such as the Ancient Greek Empire

- knowing and understanding how the decisions and actions of leaders can create both powerful or poor civilisations or kingdoms, such as Maya or Benin
- knowing and explaining the causes and effects that led to civilisations, kingdoms rising and falling, such as the Maya or Ancient Greece

knowing and explaining how leaders and beliefs shaped how people lived their lives with shared or multiple beliefs, language, laws and ways of doing things, such as William the Conqueror or Henry VIII

- knowing and understanding how the decisions and actions of leaders can create both powerful or unstable and poor civilisations or kingdoms, such as in Tudor times
- knowing and explaining the causes and effects that led to civilisations, kingdoms or dictatorships rising and falling, such as the rise and fall of Nazi Germany
