Big Ideas

the starting point for dialogue is:
to understand how to listen when others speak, develop attitudes of respect.
Embrace similarities and differences.
Understand how to be a good neighbour.
Begin to understand Jesus lived in Nazareth and looked and dressed like everyone else and would have brown skin and dark hair (use images)

To learn respect for Christianity through respectful sitting during prayer and liturgy, careful handling of religious artefacts, thoughtful learning.

Summer 2 Branch 6: Dialogue and Encounter

Knowledge Lens Content

Dialogue

By the end of this unit of study pupils will Hear about the friends of Jesus. Hear a simple life of Saint Peter and Saint Paul.

Hear a person from the local parish talk about their faith and why they are a friend of Jesus.

Look at different images of Jesus from around the world.

Knowledge Lens Content

Encounter

By the end of this unit of study, pupils will have encountered the following:

A person from the area or school community to talk about their faith and why it matters to them.

A broad sensory curriculum about music, food, smells, tastes, and specific clothing worn to enrich understanding of faith.
