

St Peter's Catholic High School

Year 11 Curriculum for Life S.O.W

Topic Title:	Goal Setting	Skills and Qualities	Personal Statements	Interviews	Xello and LMI	Applications for Further Education	CVs	Parenthood and Parenting *	Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence*	Sexual Harassment and Sexual Violence Cont.
Key questions within lessons:	Can you describe why goal setting is so important?	Can you state the difference between a skill and a quality?	Do you know what a personal statement is and why your personal statement is so important?	Can you identify what you should do in an interview?	Can you explain why LMI is important?	Can you identify the best way to make a decision?	Do you know what a CV is?	What are the roles and responsibilities of a parent?	What is sexual harassment?	Can you maturely discuss the topics of sexual harassment and sexual violence with your peers?
	Can you set targets to help you achieve your goal?	Can you list your skills and provide examples of when you have demonstrated them?	Can you identify what makes a good personal statement?	Can you identify what you shouldn't do in an interview?	Can you list the information which you can get from the online software Xello?	Can you explain what qualification levels mean?	Can you identify what a CV can be used for?	Can you identify characteristics of successful parenting?	What impact does sexual harassment have on individuals?	Can you identify links between viewing harmful sexual content (pornography) and perpetrating sexual harassment?
		Can you list your qualities and provide examples of when you have demonstrated them?	Can you create a personal statement which reflects your abilities and achievements?	Can you prepare sample answers for generic interview questions?	Can you research two potential career pathways using the Xello software?	Can you use college and training provider websites to apply for further education courses?	Can you create a CV which reflects your abilities and achievements?	Can you explain the implications and consequences of unintended pregnancy and teen parenthood?	Who can I go to for help and advice?

Topic Title:	Breast and Testicular cancer	Illegal Drugs	Other systems and forms of government	UK Law	Civil versus Criminal Law	Human Rights	Rights and Responsibilities at work	Moving on from school – understanding your first pay slip
Key questions within lessons:	How often should you check yourself?	Why do people take drugs?	Can you name and describe the type of democracy we have in the UK?	Can you define the term 'laws' and explain their function in society?	Can you explain the difference between civil and criminal law?	Can you define the term human rights?	Can you name a range of rights and responsibilities which you have as an employee?	Can you label key features of a pay slip?
	Can you give key facts on how to check yourself?	Can you identify the risks associated with taking illegal substances?	Can you name and describe three other forms of government?	Can you explain the difference between National and International Law?	Can you state three differences between how criminal and civil cases are heard in the courts?	What are protected characteristics?	Can you name a range of rights and responsibilities which an employer has?	Can you define gross and net income?
		Do you know the legal consequences of supplying and misusing illegal substances?		Can you identify how laws in the UK are made including the different organisations involved?		Can you identify human rights issues from the UK in recent years?	What are the risks and consequences of becoming the target of fraud for both yourself and your employer?	Can you explain different types of income deductions?
				Can you name organisations who serve to protect human rights?

*Delivered by Spectrum Health CIC in January 2023