

 Learner of the Week

Focus - Teachers Choice

Africa

Ariana – For working so hard to write all the names of your family. Well done Ari, we're really proud of you.

Rafe – For amazing phonics. Rafe you are so good at all our phonics games, you listen so carefully and have learned so much!

Antarctica

Leyanna – You have been trying so hard with your phoneme recognition, and you are using this to read an increasing number of words, well done!

Lily LA – Your blending and spelling have really improved, and you are working very hard to challenge yourself, great progress!

Australia

Opal – For the happiness and positivity you bring to our class every day, you are a wonderful friend to others, and you work hard and try your best with all your learning.

Max – For your wonderful creativity, I have loved building Lego towns with you this week and I have also loved watching you share your ideas and include others in your games.

Europe

Wilf C – For your enthusiasm towards our learning about Multiplication and Division! You have absolutely blown us away with your understanding about making arrays and counting in 2s, 5s and 10s. You should be so proud of yourself!

Hattie – For your incredible writing about Little Red and the Hungry Lion! The vocabulary you use, the expression I can hear coming through your voice and your exciting use of punctuation is just so wonderful. You should also be so proud of yourself!

Asia

Layla - For excellent effort in maths this week when learning about arrays—proactively extending your learning in your own time and checking your understanding with an adult.

Beau - For excellent writing in English, listening carefully to feedback and ensuring your work makes sense.

South America

Jasmine – for your positive and enthusiastic attitude to your learning – always! You have been looking after Mrs Allan this week and kindly read a story to our whole class in the library, with confidence and expression. We are so proud of you.

Hattie – for your eagerness to learn and the joy that you bring to our class. Your smile lights up the room and you are always ready to share your ideas and give your very best, making super progress in all that you do. Well done, Hattie!

Word of the Week

North America

Alfie – For making such fantastic progress with your reading. You have shown such a fantastic attitude towards learning new sounds and tricky words. We are so proud of you!

Ruby – For the fantastic choices you make every day. You are a wonderful example of how to be kind, safe and respectful and you show it by being a thoughtful friend and member of a class and looking after those around you. Thank you!

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Cocoon	hard, protective pupa stage where a caterpillar transforms into an adult butterfly
Reception	Pollinator	An animal or insect that transfers pollen between plants and flowers.
Year 1	Array	An array is a tidy way of organising objects into rows and columns to help us count them easily and help us begin to learn multiplication.
Year 2	Imperative	Something very important or urgent, an imperative verb is used to give demands.