Learner of the Week

Focus – Being Resilient (Curriculum Driver)
Africa Benjamin – For trying hard to do up your zip on your coat independently, you didn't give up! Esme – For being keen to try all activities in Nursery and not giving up if they are tricky, well done!
Antarctica Zachary – You are working so hard on all your learning, and you are challenging yourself all the time to do difficult things, well done! Lily L – Well done for always having a go at new things even if they are tricky, you always try again if things don't go according to plan!
Australia Teddy – For having such a fantastic start to Reception. You walk into school every day with a smile, and approach all our learning with curiosity and determination. Keep working hard – you are a superstar! Aaron – For working hard on your writing patterns over the last few weeks. Following the patterns was tricky to begin with, but you've worked hard every week and the progress you've made this term is amazing – it's lovely to see how proud you are of yourself, we're proud of you too.
Europe Wilbur – For the fantastic attitude you always have towards all of your learning. The commitment you have given to understanding 'the world of ten' in Maths this half term has been absolutely wonderful to see – we feel so proud of you and hope you feel just as proud of yourself! Max G – You have absolutely blown us away with your fantastic sewing over these past few weeks! You showed such independence, enthusiasm and concentration and were so proud of your finished bunting. You are such a special member of Europe Class and we are so proud of you!
Asia Margot - For your fantastic resilience, positive outlook, and cheerful attitude. You always try your best, keep going when things are challenging, and brighten every day with your smile. Amira - For always showing resilience and kindness. You face challenges with a positive attitude, always make me smile, and showed such wonderful empathy when I wasn't feeling well this week. You are a truly thoughtful and caring person.

Word of the Week

Isaac- For always trying to challenge yourself and grow in all areas of your learning. I loved reading your 'I wonder…' poem and the curious questions you had about rainbows, the earth and even Santa! Well done, Isaac!
Jeeya- For your fantastic resilience and trying your best in your learning and with your friendships. Your smile lights up the classroom and we love that you are starting to share your wonderful ideas during carpet time. Well done, Jeeya!

North America

Jasmine - For their incredible listening on the carpet and the amazing improvement they've shown through hard work with reading. We are so proud of their determination, especially when tackling trickier tasks like writing!

Olivia - is our Learner of the Week for their incredible resilience and hard work when navigating tricky writing tasks that require extra scaffolds and support. We are so proud of their courage in working through big emotions in class and continuing to try their absolute best every day!

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Size	How big or small something is.
Reception	Primary colour	The three primary colours are blue, red and yellow. We can mix these colours to make secondary colours, but primary colours cannot be made by mixing colours together.
Year 1	donation	When you freely give something valuable—like money, toys, clothes, or your time—to help other people, animals, or a good cause without expecting anything back.
Year 2	demarcate	To add a capital letter, full stop, question mark, comma or exclamation mark to a sentence.
