

Learner of the Week

Focus - Teacher Focus – Being Resilient (Curriculum Driver)

Africa

Lachlann – For joining in with everything at Nursery so well, you are always willing to have a go even if you feel nervous, we love having you here Lachlann!

Isla – For being brave at school and trying new things even if they feel a bit scary, we are so proud of you Isla!

Antarctica

Mia – It is wonderful to see you gaining confidence every day, you are trying lots of new things and making friends. Well done for being so brave.

Dakota – You have settled into school so well and it has been wonderful to see you exploring the different area and activities. Well done, Dakota!

Australia

Daisy – For coming into school so well, even when it feels a bit scary. Well done for being brave and facing new experiences with a smile. I am very proud of you!

Jamie – For working so hard on your writing patterns in handwriting. It was tricky to begin with, but you kept on trying and didn't give up - you should be very proud!

Europe

Albie – For showing such bravery and even some humour(!) during your flu injection yesterday. I know how scary it must have felt for you but I felt so proud of you for finding the courage to let it happen. You are amazing!

Luca – Luca, you have shown such resilience towards your learning during our second full week of Year One. You are becoming more confident with our routines and understanding what happens each day in Year One and I just cannot wait to see where your journey takes you this year!

Asia

Aayan - For being so brave during your flu injection yesterday and for settling into Year 1 so beautifully. You are trying your best with everything, talking more, and always bringing such a lovely, sweet energy wherever you go.

Word of the Week

Oliver - You have had such a brilliant start to Year 1. You work so hard and always try your best. Your puffin facts in English were fantastic, and you really challenged yourself with your spelling. You should be very proud of yourself!

South America

Reuben O- For your resilient attitude in starting Year 2. You have shown great maturity in how you follow the Strathmore expectations. You always complete your work to a good standard and take pride in your learning. Well done, Reuben!

Layla A- You have shown excellent effort and creativity in all your learning this week. I really liked how you carefully mixed tints and shades of different paint for your colour wheel in Art. Well done, Layla!

North America

Etta - For your continued resilience in Math. We have been learning how to partition numbers to 100. Etta has shown a fantastic "can-do" attitude. She always has a go, never gets disheartened, and has proved to everyone in class that if you listen hard and practice, you really can do anything. Keep up the amazing work.

Colby - We are so proud of you for always having a go. Your voice and ideas during our carpet discussions this week have been such a joy to have in class. North America is lucky to have a truly wonderful student!

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Friend	Someone who we like to spend time with and is kind to us
Reception	Unique	Being the only one of its kind.
Year 1	Needs/ wants	A need is something we cannot live without e.g. water, food, air. A want is something people enjoy but can live without e.g. toys, chocolate.
