

 Learner of the Week

Focus - Teacher's choice

Africa

Izzy- You are always so creative, we love seeing your wonderful ideas and creations, well done.

Jude – For being so kind and helpful in the classroom to adults and your friends, thank you Jude.

Antarctica

Lilah – You have excellent learning behaviours, and you are kind, safe and respectful all of the time. Well done!

Niamh - You are making progress all the time in your learning, and you are always kind, respectful and safe. Well done!

Australia

Liam – For being an all-round superstar, you try your hardest every day with your learning and you are a wonderful friend to others.

Baani – For always being such a lovely friend to others, you involve everyone in your play and are a very thoughtful member of the class.

Europe

Wilf C – For being so enthusiastic during our Victorian Day! You sang so beautifully in the Victorian Music Hall and I felt so proud of you!

Nimrah – For sharing so much knowledge and passion about your own culture and traditions during RE this week. It has been so special watching you blossom in this way!

Asia

Etta - For being so enthusiastic and fully embracing Victorian Day yesterday. You were especially brilliant when you stood in front of the other children and delivered your joke with such confidence — a true Victorian comedian!

Abdurraheem - For always being so engaged in Forest School. You ask thoughtful questions and are a wonderfully curious learner outdoors. We can see your confidence growing, and it is lovely to see you so happy outside!

South America

Alessandra – For bringing such imagination and creativity to our class. You always brighten up our day with your joyful, positive energy and wonderful learning that you share. Well done!

Rico – for consistently giving your very best in everything that you do. You greet all of your learning with a positive attitude and are such a kind and respectful member of our class who makes everyone feel welcome and included. Well done, Rico!

Word of the Week

North America

Millie – For showing such fantastic concentration whilst writing in English this week. You've focused so well and made such an effort to ensure your work is neat.

Livia – For your persistence and determination with your learning across the year so far. You don't give up, and always try your hardest.

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Lunar New Year	Lunar New Year is a celebration marking the beginning of a new year on the lunar calendar. It is celebrated in many countries across Asia.
Reception	History	History defines what happens in the past. This ranges from a few hours to millions of years ago.
Year 1	Emotion	When we experience a strong feeling.
Year 2	Sculpture	A piece of 3D art