

 Learner of the Week

Focus – Teacher Choice

Africa

Eve – For being so kind and helping when a friend was upset at Nursery. Well done Eve.

Abigail – For using your words when playing with your friends – we love to hear what you have to say.

Antarctica

Delphine – Your sense of humour is infectious, and you are kind, thoughtful and respectful to everyone in school. You work hard and have lots of great ideas.

Luca – You are such an enthusiastic learner, and every day is an adventure for you. You have so many fascinating things to tell us.

Australia

Baxter – For always sharing your brilliant knowledge with the class with such enthusiasm, we love to hear your ideas, which you share with so much passion!

Martha – You are an incredibly thoughtful, friendly and kind member of the class and you always try your very hardest with your learning. We are very lucky to have you in Australia class.

Europe

Kit – For your incredible perseverance during our English learning about a colour that you can experience through your senses. Your ideas were wonderful and your attitude towards the activity was just fabulous.

Hadley – For being a wonderful role model to not only your peers, but to the adults in our school too! You have such a kind heart and embrace school life head on, with a positive attitude. Europe Class is so lucky to have you!

Asia

Maxi – For showing great resilience in your maths learning this week. You did an excellent job remembering the patterns in fact families.

Sia - For your fantastic suggestions in our English learning about how colour can be experienced through the senses. I loved the thoughtful and articulate way you explained that red means love to you.

South America

Finn – For being such a kind, respectful and thoughtful member of our class. You are always so polite and kind to others and always give your very best. We have been blown away by how hard you have been working on your writing too; you are a super star!

Norah – For your wonderful writing on World Book Day. You wrote such a beautiful description of the colour blue, using your senses and lots of lovely vocabulary to paint a fantastic picture for the reader. We can see a little author of the future in you, well done Norah!

North America

Matthew – For your wonderful understanding of other people's emotions and the compassion you show towards others. You showed such understanding and care towards your peers on world book day and should feel very proud of yourself!

Word of the Week

Daisy – For being such a kind and helpful member of the class. You are always volunteering to help the adults and peers in the class; no job is too big or small! Thank you caring so much for your learning environment and those within it.

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Print	making pictures or patterns by pressing something onto a surface to leave a mark.
Reception	Extinct	An entire species that no longer exists and can never come back naturally.
Year 1	Character	A person in a novel, play or film.
Year 2	Braille	Braille is a special system of raised dots that lets people who are blind or visually impaired read and write by feeling the dots with their fingers.