

 Learner of the Week

Focus - Teacher's Choice

Africa

Amelie – For always being so helpful, you are always willing to help other children and adults. Thank you Amelie, we always notice.

Indy – For fabulous phonics, you are getting so good at rhyming and initial letter sounds. Well done Indy.

Antarctica

Noah – You always try very hard with your learning and think very carefully about what you need to do. Well done!

Arlo – You have so many interesting things to teach us about the world and you always add interesting details to our discussions, thank you for adding so much to our learning!

Australia

Lilian – Your smile and dancing light up our classroom every day, you are a lovely friend to others and always follow our school values of being kind, safe and respectful.

Penelope – You work so hard with your learning, and you approach everything with a smile and determination. You should be very proud of yourself and the brilliant progress you are making.

Europe

Mabel – You should be so proud of how hard you have worked on your writing this term. You are taking such care and have so much patience with yourself and the look of pride on your face when you have finished is just so special to see!

Theo – Theo, you are such a special, kind-hearted little boy who is just full of awe and wonder. You have shown such creativity in your art-work this week and I felt so proud of how proud you were of yourself!

Asia

Reuben - You always try your best in your learning, and it really shines! You are enthusiastic, love to learn, and have so many wonderful ideas to share.

Colby - We are so proud of how much your communication has grown this year. It has been amazing to see you learning to write your name – what a brilliant achievement! Well done!

South America

Rhiannon – for showing resilience and coming into school each day with a smile! You have coped so beautifully with lots of change this week and always have a positive story to tell and kind word to share. We are really proud of you.

Louis – for your fabulous attention to detail in maths. When reading the weather together you were able to identify patterns and read information with real curiosity and focus, sharing your ideas confidently with your peers. Well done!

Word of the Week

North America

Davey – For showing fantastic cooperation, sportsmanship and teamwork within PE. You have demonstrated excellent skill whilst learning how to play rounders and you have shown wonderful support for your teammates.

Livia – For showing strong determination and persisting when you find something tricky. You should be really proud of the attitude you have shown towards your learning.

	Word	Meaning
