

Learner of the Week

Focus - Being Inclusive

Africa

Ellie - For being kind to your friends in Africa class.

Antarctica

Jasmine - You love meeting new people and playing new games, you welcome all children to join in with what you are doing.

Nathaniel - You are kind to all children and you are happy to include everyone in your games and learning.

Australia

Max & Charlie - You both show such kindness and understanding towards everyone around you. You are both so thoughtful and wonderful!

Europe

Ophelia - For making every person you speak to feel as if they are the most special person in the world. You really are a fantastic role model to us all!

Serayah - For treating every person with true kindness and compassion. You are such a joy to have in Europe Class!

Asia

Rico - For always treating everyone with kindness and respect. I watched you approach a friend who was sad yesterday and watching you cheer them up was beautiful.

Rhiannon - For always being so considerate of others. Your patience and compassion make you a wonderful friend!

South America

Anna- For always making sure every class member feels included.

Ella- For always making sure every class member feels included.

North America

Naomi - For being a positive and welcoming member of the class, and making sure everyone feels included.

Finley - For welcoming everyone with a big smile, and making sure everyone feels included.

Word of the Week

	Word	Meaning
Nursery	Emotions	a persons inner feelings.
Reception	Subitise	Knowing how many objects are in front of us without having to count.
Year 1	Systematic	Year One's Definition - Working step by step!
Year 2	Imperative	An essential or urgent thing. Something that really needs to be done.