

Meadow Learning Update

Week Ending 28.06.24

Dear Parents and Carers,

In Art we've designed our tiles that we're going to begin creating next week. In History we've continued looking at the Neolithic revolution and learnt about how animals were used in farming. The children are really enjoying the Growing Communities workshop. This week we got our planters prepared ready to start planting next week—please could children come in in their own clothes again next Wednesday.

Best wishes,

Miss Cutler and Mrs Wilson.

Writing

Our text this term is 'The Tempest'.

Suggested Writing Activity:

This week the children have written speeches from the perspective of the characters in the story. We also had a debate on whether we believed Prospero is a good man or not. The children were really enthusiastic about this and created a great debate.

Can the children create points ready for a new debate next week? They can choose which side of the argument they wish to be on.

"Should Prospero let Ariel free?"

Reading

This week we have continued our whole class reading. This focuses on the key reading skills—retrieve, infer, sequence, vocabulary and predict. This week we have looked at Flotsam.

Spelling

This week's spellings:

Donkey, Monkey, Chimney,
Valley, Alleys, Trolleys,
Turkeys, Jockeys

Maths

This week we have continued with our chapter—fractions.

Suggested Maths Activity

$1/3$ of 12

$1/2$ of 20

$1/4$ of 8

$1/2$ of 24

Reading at Home

We ask that, where possible, you read with your child for at least five minutes every evening. Please sign your child's reading diary to let us know how they are getting along!

The children are still coming home with a banded reading book. This is not one they will have looked at in class, nor one that is based on their phonics level. Therefore, they may need some extra support with this. Please let us know if you feel the book they have been given is not accurate to your child's reading ability and we can adjust this. Please could these be returned on a Monday with the library book.

Weekly reminders

Mondays – Reading books and library books.

Tuesdays – PE day
