Dear Parents/Carers,

I can hardly believe how quickly the weeks are passing now, we are down to our final two weeks before Summer. This week I feel as though my feet have barely touched the ground. I have been working closely with the Trust and other Headteachers in a range of other schools as well as attending a Leadership Conference today, so I apologise that I have not been around to meet and greet you in the mornings as usual. Our Reception class made their visit to the library yesterday and Gemma from the library popped into school this morning to remind all the children about the Summer Reading Trail which the children can get involved in.

Excitingly our classes have begun their transition visits to their new teachers for next year and will have another visit again next week. We are still yet to appoint a Teaching Assistant who is likely to be placed mainly with our new Year 5 children and will hopefully cover teacher planning time across the school. This position has been created since Mrs Johnson will be retiring at the end of this year and Mrs Hall will be reducing her hours also. Once our new position is filled, we will of course inform parents.

On Tuesday next week it will be time for our Year 6 parents and carers to hunt out the tissues as we begin our farewell activities with the Year 6's final performance at Strike Lane – Performing their rendition of School of Pop. For health and safety reasons we ask that you sign up on Arbor so that we are aware of numbers. As usual each child has been allocated 2 tickets, and the show begins at 2.15pm.

On Monday next week we are excited to have Galloways visiting us to support our celebration of Disability Pride Month. The children will find out about the vital work of Galloways and be inspired to hear stories of achievement of people with sight loss. Then finally for the week, our Summer Fair will be held after school on Friday until 4.30pm. All children will be encouraged to wear non- uniform on Friday in return for chocolate items for the chocolate hamper. Our Cheerleading Team will be performing on the grass at 3.45pm (led by Miss Owens as Lorna cannot attend on this afternoon) followed by a Ju-Jitsu display at 4pm. We do hope everyone who attends these clubs takes part in the displays and that we can encourage a few more participants in the new school year.

Have a lovely weekend everybody,
Katherine Shuttleworth
