HEAD TEACHER'S THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

"Your mind is a powerful thing.

When you fill it with positive thoughts, your life will start to change"

Welcome to the final newsletter of this half term. Hopefully the cold, dark days are behind us, but I think we might have a few more yet! What a wonderful half term it has been, full of opportunity, learning and fun!

On Tuesday we celebrated Safer Internet Day across school. Thanks to Mr Townsend our Computing Lead for sending out the important messages around being online. The children were made aware of the dangers of sharing personal information and that some things are too good to be true! Please take time to have a read of the NOS guidance that Mr Townsend put on Dojo. Internet safety and monitoring children's online presence is becoming even more important in this fast-changing world. The children are aware that their digital footprint stays with them and to 'treat others how they want to be treated' online as well as in school and the community.

On Thursday we celebrated NSPCC Number Day. The children came dressed in anything number related and we even had an epidemic of number pox on faces! The children were involved in lots of number related maths challenges and activities bringing maths to life and showing how an understanding of number is so important in everyday life. Thank you for your £1 donations towards this fantastic charity, it really does make a difference.

Believe and Achieve

Our value this half term has been Faith and putting faith in each other and God. We have thought about what this looks like in action and how we can see this in our daily lives. Massive thanks to the Mountain Movers team, Mrs Faulkner, Mr Haslam and the Mental Health Ambassadors for creating some lovely thoughtful activities for our Children's Mental Health week. That was certainly Faith in action!

We break up on Friday 14th February for 1 week and return on Monday 24th February. I hope you all have a wonderful Valentine's day, spreading love, kindness and respect across our community.

First week back we look forward to our amazing Young Voices Concert at the Co-op Live Arena on Tuesday 25th February. We'll tell you all about it after the event.

Thanks for all your support, remember that together we can move mountains.
Take care.
