HEAD TEACHER'S THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

*"Getting knocked down isn't the end - rising again is where your strength is built.
Stand up, shake off & keep moving"*

Welcome to the latest edition of the St Stephen's newsletter. It's been a very busy week in school with lots of interaction!

Firstly, thank you to all parents and carers who joined us for Parents evenings on Wednesday and Thursday. It was lovely to see so many of you in school getting the chance to observe the wonderful learning throughout their books.

As ever, the partnership between home and school is so important to help every child reach their potential. Thank you to all the staff for their feedback, preparation and dedication to the children in their classes. Remember, the staff are eager to support, so please speak to them on the door or by telephone if you have any concerns.

A big thank you also goes to our brilliant House and Vice Captains who helped keep the evening running smoothly. They were fantastic ambassadors for our school, I hope they made you feel very welcome and you were able to find your way around school!

As a school, we came together in an act of remembrance on Tuesday wearing our poppies with pride. House Captains, visited the cenotaph and laid our special wreath, followed by a short service. The rest of school had a very poignant silence and service in school with Mrs Faulkner. The spotlight on the cross and the poppies were a stark reminder of the sacrifices made.

Well done to our school Football Team who remain unbeaten in the cluster league. They played in two epic encounters with two draws. A big thank you to Miss Clegg, Mr Williams and Mrs Gregson for managing the teams so diligently! Also, thanks to the parents who came along to support them, we go again next week!

Friday was our epic day in school celebrating a multitude of events! The children wore odd socks to culminate our Anti Bullying Week of activities. They arrived in their 'Pudsey' gear to celebrate Children in Need with a donation of £1 and wore non-uniform for the church fair with a chocolate donation! Phew what a day! Thanks for your support with this, it really shows what a caring, kind and considerate community we have.

Our next non-uniform day is next Friday 21st November for the donation of a bottle for the church Fair. Thanks for your support with this. Mrs Berry wanted me to say a special thank you and invite you all to the Church Fair next Saturday (22nd November).

Next week we have nasal flu vaccinations and Y4 start their intensive swimming sessions!

Have a wonderful weekend
