

Preparing for Adulthood Finance Workshop

Workshop covering financial issues once your disabled child becomes an adult, for Camden parent/carers with a SEND young person 14 years+

WHEN: Wednesday 11th May,
10am-2pm, lunch provided

WHERE: The Greenwood Centre,
37 Greenwood Place, NW5 1LB

Belinda Blank, Independent Advocate and Stewart Stretton Hill, Lawyer, will talk you through the issues and sort out all different aspects of what you need to know.

Come and hear professionals explain:

- How to manage a bank account for someone who lacks capacity to manage their own affairs
- Appointeeship for PIP, Universal Credit, and other benefits
- Responsibilities for Direct Payments, Personal Budgets and Local Authority Financial Assessments
- Financial Deputyship, and Wills and Trusts for Disabled Adults
- How to challenge all of the above

Belinda Blank is a qualified Independent Advocate who specialises in the transition to adult life. She has over seventeen years' experience in the SEN, charity and education sectors including many years working for the National Autistic Society as a Tribunal Advocate, and at Ambitious about Autism where she established and managed the Transition to Adult Life programme.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL***

To book onto this workshop please email maria.schultz@kids.org.uk, call or text 07826 671 523

To get in touch email CamdenSPF@kids.org.uk or check our Facebook page
<https://www.facebook.com/CamdenSpecialParentsForum>