

Child	Actor/Role	Lines
Theo	Candle Prayer	We will now say the candle prayer... Lord Jesus (Lord Jesus), light of the world (light of the world), be with us now (be with us now), amen (amen).
Phoebe	School Prayer	We will now say the school prayer... Dear God, Bless our school and everyone in it. We know that we are all special and matter to you. Thank you for our happy school, for families and friends who care for us. Thank you for our wonderful world and every good gift you send us. Help us always to do our best and may you and your angels watch over us and keep us safe today and every day. Amen
Will		Welcome to our Year 4 Harvest Festival Service! Today we celebrate Harvest — a time to say thank you for the food we have and for the people who help bring it to our tables.
Winnie		Harvest has been celebrated for thousands of years. Long before supermarkets, people depended on what they grew. A good harvest meant plenty for winter; a poor harvest meant life was hard.
Tommy		Today, Harvest reminds us that every meal is precious. The Harvest Moon marks the start of autumn as this full moon brings extra light to the farmers working into the night to provide our food.
Song = Harvest Moon
Oscar		We are lucky to get our food from all over the world. In Asia, rice is a staple food that feeds billions every day.
Hendo		In Europe, we give thanks for wheat — for bread, pasta, and pastries.
Floryn		In North America, people celebrate harvest with Thanksgiving — a time for family and food.
Hugo		In South America, soybeans, corn, coffee and sugar are harvested to share with the world.
Charlotte		Across Africa, people harvest bananas, maize, and sweet potatoes.
Neeva		And in many places, people rely on fish from the sea to feed their families.
Luke		We may live in different countries, but we share one earth, one sun, and one responsibility — to care for creation.
Song = It's Harvest Time
Devon		The Bible teaches us to share what we have. In this story, see how one small act of kindness became a great miracle.
Jessica	Narrator 1	One day, Jesus was teaching a huge crowd near the Sea of Galilee.
Dougie	Narrator 2	The sun was hot, and the people had been listening all day. They were tired and very hungry.
Florence	Disciple 1	Jesus, it's getting late. Please send the people away so they can buy food in the villages.

Jude	Jesus	They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat.
Ollie	Disciple 2	But Lord, how? There are more than five thousand people here! We could never have enough food.
Teddy	Narrator 3	Just then, a small boy came forward, carrying his little packed lunch.
Nate	Boy	I don't have much... only five loaves of bread and two fish. But you can have them.
Florence	Disciple 1	How far will that go among so many people?
Jude	Jesus	Bring the loaves and fish to me.
Natalie	Narrator 4	Jesus told the crowd to sit down on the grass. He took the food, looked up to heaven, and thanked God for it.
Lyla	Narrator 5	Then Jesus broke the bread and gave it to the disciples to hand out.
Ollie	Disciple 2	Wait a moment... the food isn't running out! It just keeps going!
Chloe	Narrator 6	Everyone ate as much as they wanted. The whole crowd was full and satisfied.
Ethan	Narrator 7	Afterwards, the disciples gathered up the leftovers — twelve baskets full!
Aubrey	Narrator 8	One small boy's gift became a great miracle of sharing.
Corey		This story shows that even small gifts can make a big difference. The boy didn't keep his food to himself — he shared it with everyone. That simple act of kindness helped Jesus do something amazing.
Mhairi		When we choose to share — whether it's food, time, or kindness — God can turn something small into something great. Sharing isn't just about things; it's about love.
Penny		Close your eyes for a moment. Think of one thing you could share this week. It might be a smile, some of your time, or helping someone in need. Harvest is not just about what we have, but what we give. God blesses us so that we can bless others.
Song = Let's Harvest
Phoebe		Dear God, thank you for the food we eat, the water we drink, and the harvest you give. Thank you for farmers, fishermen, drivers, shopkeepers, and cooks.
Theo		We pray for people who are hungry or in need — help us to share what we have. And we pray for the world you made — help us to care for your creation. Amen.
Archer		Thank you for joining our Harvest Service today. May we go from here ready to share God's gifts.
Ethan		Please stand and join us as we sing the Harvest Samba.
Song = Harvest Samba
Dougie		May God our father bless us, may Jesus our brother walk beside us, may the holy spirit live within us, amen.
Jessica		In God's family, we go, in peace, in joy, in love.
