Parental Feedback 2013-14

The data displayed has been collected from over 500 questionnaires completed by parents throughout the academic year.

As a result of the data gained from Question 6 the school have now implemented a new homework policy. A parent consultation evening was run to aid in development of the policy.

All questions that received a response of anything less than agree where we knew who the questionnaire belonged to (in particular Question 8) were followed up and investigated and appropriate action taken.
