1. Registering your new ECTs for September 2024

ECTs starting in September 2024 will need to be correctly registered in 3 places:

1 Registered with the DfE – register here from 24th June

2 Registered for their Statutory Induction with an Appropriate Body

Read our quick guide to Appropriate Body Service

Register with the Teach West London Appropriate Body service

3 Registered on an ECF based training programme.

Click here for further information about the ECF

Who is responsible for registering ECTs at my school?

Headteachers hold overall responsibility for successful registration of ECTs, however it is usually the Induction Lead/ Tutor that completes the registration process.

How do I get login details to the DfE portal?

New Induction Tutors will need to be added to the DfE portal by the Headteacher so that they can access the platform.

If you no longer have login details to the DfE portal, please email: continuing_professional_development@digital.education.gov.uk

When are Teach West London's ECF Programme training sessions?

ECF schedules for your local cluster will be emailed out shortly to all schools.

4. Registering for an NPQ - funding update

The DfE recently announced the funding criteria for NPQs for the autumn 2024 cohort.

Full scholarships will continue to be available to all teachers and leaders employed at the most disadvantaged schools and other settings for all 11 NPQs.

Full scholarships will be available to teachers and leaders employed at all state-funded organisations for the following NPQs:

- headship
- early headship coaching offer
- leading primary mathematics
- special educational needs co-ordinators (SENCOs)

Teach West London will continue to work alongside UCL to deliver the suite of NPQs for the Autumn 2024 cohort. We've successfully trained over 1000 professionals since 2021 with participants achieving a 99% pass rate across the courses.

We will share further information shortly regarding eligibility and fees once this has been provided to us by UCL.

In the meantime, places can be pre-booked below.
