TEACHING KS3 WITH THE NEW GCSE IN VIEW

In January the government confirmed changes to the GCSEs in French, German and Spanish, in line with the 2016 MFL Pedagogy Review recommendations and the 2021 Ofsted Research Review. Whilst the new GCSE is intended for first teaching from September 2024, with first exams in summer 2026, there are actions we can take now at KS3 which will help prepare for the changes.

In this session you will explore the implications of the new GCSE for our teaching now at KS3 (and soon at KS4), in particular:

- ▶ Vocabulary - working with a defined content and what this means for listening, speaking, reading and writing
- ▶ Phonics - read aloud and dictation
- ▶ Speaking - unplanned interactions
- ▶ Reading - inference and depth of word knowledge

Ideas are exemplified with resources in French, German and Spanish that are freely available.

This session will take place on
Monday 30th January 2023 from 4:00 - 5:30pm

MEET THE EXPERT

The London West Alliance is pleased to invite you to an afternoon CPD facilitated by

Victoria Hobson

After graduating from The University of Birmingham with a BA(Hons) in French and Hispanic Studies, Victoria completed a PGCE in MFL at the University of Leeds. Over the course of her career she has held positions of leadership at subject, departmental, whole school and Local Authority level, and most recently as a Specialist Leader of Education. Whether as a class teacher or a leader, developing and enabling others is the aspect of Victoria's professional practice which motivates her the most. She is also highly committed to her own professional development and as such holds a Masters in Education, from the University of Leeds. Victoria joined the NCELP team in January 2019 initially as a Teacher Educator and now holds the position of CPD Leader.
