

MEET THE EXPERT

The London West Alliance is pleased to invite you to an afternoon CPD facilitated by
Julia Diamond-Conway

Come and find out about a range of activities to enliven RE lessons and engage pupils. You will receive a series of knowledge rich strategies that can both be adapted or adopted for use in your classroom and shared with other members of staff to bring dynamic, confident RE teaching into your school. Ideas shared will take note of information given in the Ofsted RE Research Review (May 2021).

This session will take place on Tuesday 7th March 2023
From 4.00 - 5.30pm

WEBINAR

MEET THE EXPERT

The London West Alliance is pleased to invite you to an afternoon CPD facilitated by

Julia Diamond-Conway

Julia is a National RE Adviser who works at RE Today Services. She specialises in primary RE and taught in London primary schools for 14 years before joining the RE Today team in 2014.

Julia has written for many RE Today publications and trains teachers around the country. Her passion is promoting excellent RE for all. Julia advises a number of SACREs and works to support RE in several London boroughs. She is always delighted to be involved in setting up Ambassadors of Faith and Belief schemes (AFaBs).

Currently, Julia is Co-Chair of AREIAC (Association of RE Inspectors, Advisers and Consultants). She has also been a member of the Executive Committee for NATRE (National Association of Teachers of RE) and has been involved in the development of NATRE's journal 'Professional Reflection'.

- Cost: ▶ £40 for LWA members and membership schools and £45 for other schools
- ▶ SEND TWO DELEGATES FOR £75 for LWA members and £80 for other schools

To make enquiries, find out more, and book places please contact: LWA@lampton.org.uk Tickets are transferable but non-refundable.