

If parents are interested in free course on Arts and Crafts, English and Maths, I.T,
Family and Care, History or Science; the WEA have opened up free courses:

<https://www.wea.org.uk/liveonlinelearning>

The screenshot shows the WEA website's 'Live Online Learning' page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Student log in' (green), 'Donate' (orange), and a search bar. Below this is the WEA logo and 'Adult Learning Within Reach' tagline, followed by a secondary navigation menu: 'About us', 'Find a course', 'Learn with us', 'Work with us', 'Get involved', 'Your local WEA', and 'Mailing list'. A breadcrumb trail reads 'Home / Live Online Learning with the WEA'. The main heading is 'Live Online Learning with the WEA'. Below this is a section titled 'Live Online Learning' with the WEA logo and an illustration of a hand pointing at a play button on a screen. The text below reads: 'We appreciate that this is an unsettling time for everyone. We've compiled a selection of our best FREE online courses and taster sessions in a variety of subjects, so we can help you even just a little at this time. We'll update these pages on a daily basis, so check back regularly. Click on the subjects below to learn more and enrol online. Remember this is just a selection: for the full range of online courses please use the search box below or click on 'Find an online course' at the top of this page.
