

Hello Year 5 and welcome to the week beginning Monday 18th May 2020 - English 2

Task 1: Re-read the fable (a story with a moral or lesson) 'The Hare and the Tortoise' by Aesop.

Write 'Hare' or 'Tortoise' next to the adjective that best describes character's feelings before the race - you may choose both.

Nervous

Excited

Confident

Care-free

Doubtful

Determined

Intimidated

Relaxed

Task 2:

Tomorrow, you are going to retell the story from Tortoise's point of view. Create a story map that summarises 5 key parts of the story.

* Use first person (see example on next slide).

Task 2 example:

Story map from Hare's point of view (you will be doing Tortoise's):

Intro: Excitedly, I waited at the start line for the race.

Build up: As fox blew the whistle, I raced well ahead.

Problem: My lightning speed left me tired so I had a nap halfway.

Ending: I woke up too late and Tortoise had overtaken me.

Conclusion: I lost the race 😞

Task 3:

Read your story map out loud but add in extra detail where you can. Retell it enough times so that you become familiar with the recount from Tortoise's point of view, ready for writing tomorrow.
