

ENGLISH 2 wb18/05/2020 L.O. To use fronted adverbials for when, where and how.

Fronted adverbials are words/phrases at the beginning of a sentence which describe where, when or how something is happening.

Task 1: Below are some sentences from the story, 'How the camel got his hump' with an example sentence underneath each one. The fronted adverbial has been underlined. Write your own sentences using the same fronted adverbials (Don't forget the comma!)

1. Angrily, Horse, Dog and Ox decided to tell Man that the camel refused to work.

Example: Angrily, the Dog demanded some help from Camel.

2. Straight away, the Djinn rolled himself up in his dust-cloak and set off across the desert.

Example: Straight away, the Ox began to plough the field.

3. Away in the distance, the Animals observed a cloud of dust rolling across the desert.

Example: Away in the distance, a glint of light caught the attention of Camel.

Task 2: Below are some examples of fronted adverbials. Sort them into 3 groups: When/Where/How (either use same colour for ones in same group or create a table with the 3 headings).

In the distance,

Many years ago,

Frantically,

Selfishly,

Joyfully,

Underneath the bridge,

Early in the morning,

After a short while,

High in the tree-tops,

In the blink of an eye,

Curiously,

Anxiously,

Far away,

Courageously,

After dusk,

Over the mountain,

Task 3: Write some of your own sentences using these starters.

For example: Early in the morning, the Animals began their chores.
