

English Lesson 2

LO - Respond to statements using true or false, giving simple reasons drawing from the text.

Task one -

Read through the character description and answer these questions.

1. What does paragraph 1 tell you about?
2. What does paragraph 2 tell you about?
3. Can you find the adjectives in the character description?
4. Who is the description about?
5. Are they a good or bad character?
6. Would you like to be their friend? Why/why not?

Little Red Riding Hood is a young girl who likes to wear a red, hooded cape. She has short, brown hair and usually wears it in pigtails. She carries a yellowish brown, wicker basket with her that holds her belongings when she goes on outings to the forest.

Little Red Riding Hood is a happy, friendly little girl who enjoys chatting to people she meets when she's in the forest. She is sometimes disobedient as she doesn't follow her Mother's instructions. She is very caring and likes to make other people happy by taking them cakes or treats to eat. Little Red Riding Hood is very curious and notices things around her, such as when people look different to usual. She is very brave and shows courage in some tricky situations.

Task two -

Read through the character description and answer these True or False questions - find a reason in the description to say how you know.

True or False?

- Little Red Riding Hood always listens really carefully.
- Little Red Riding Hood is very tall with long legs.
- Little Red Riding Hood shows courage.
- Little Red Riding Hood is kind to other people.
- Little Red Riding Hood carries a plastic basket.
- Little Red Riding Hood wears a red, hooded cape.