

CONTINENTS AND OCEANS

Vocabulary

Antarctic: A polar region by the South Pole. Arctic: A polar region by the North Pole Coast: Where the land meets the ocean. Continent: A land mass defined by physical, human or cultural features. Country: Political area defined by physical, human or cultural features. Ocean: One of the large bodies of salt water that cover the surface of the earth. Sea: A body of salt water not as large as an ocean and usually surrounded by land.

The Continents

Africa is the continent that has the most countries. There are 54 countries on the African continent.

Antarctica is the smallest continent by population numbers. It is covered almost completely by ice.

Asia is the largest continent. It has the biggest land area and the world's biggest population.

Australia is the smallest continent on the planet.

Europe has the two smallest countries in the world. Vatican City which is in Rome and Monaco which is bordered on three sides by France.

North America is a continent located entirely on the northern and western hemisphere. There are 23 countries in North America.

South America has 12 countries. It's largest country is Brazil.

The Oceans

Arctic	Pacific
Atlantic.	Southern
Indian	