

Create two groups of objects under 10.
You could use stones, sweets, toys-anything!

Ask the children to count how many all together.

Encourage the children to touch them as they count them to make it easier. If they still find it tricky, ask the children to line them up so they avoid counting an object more than once.

Here are some examples: -

