

Hello Year 5 and welcome to English, wb 5th October 20202

Task 1:

Read the poems on this slide. They are called Haikus.

Haikus follow a pattern: line 1 (5 syllables)

line 2 (7 syllables)

line 3 (5 syllables)

A syllable is one sound in a word when spoken eg jam = 1 syllable water = 2 syllables deliver = 3 syllables

Clap the syllables in your name (Miss Delaney = 4 syllables in total)

(Mrs McCaul = 4 syllables in total)

Dolphins

Through bright sapphire waves
Glide, leap, bound with abandon Nature's acrobats.

(Anon)

Tigers

Tigers are vicious
They sprint as fast as lightning
They're horrifying.

(By Drew Russell)

Task 2:

Have a go at writing a Haiku about a Blue Whale.

- Capital letter at the start of each line.
- Full stop ONLY at the end of the verse.
- 5 syllables, 7 syllables, 5 syllables.

Here is some vocabulary to help you.

- Giant
 - Gentle
 - Huge
 - Enormous
 - Ocean
 - Whale song
 - Heart same weight as a car
 - Fin
 - Tail
 - Blow hole
- * travel thousands of miles
 - * largest creature on Earth
