

Hello Year 5 and welcome to English 3 (wb 5th October 2020).

Task 1: Choose an amazing animal. Write your own Haiku poem - if you need support, email your teacher 😊

Remember the pattern: line 1 (5 syllables)

line 2 (7 syllables)

line 3 (5 syllables)

Be as creative as you can - they do not have to rhyme but count the syllables!

Send your heavenly haikus to:

kdelaney@blessedsacrament.lancs.sch.uk

clairemccaul@blessedsacrament.lancs.sch.uk

Challenge:

Renga poems are written by more than one poet (ask someone at home to be Poet B).

Poet A would write three lines following the structure below. Poet B would then write the last two lines of the verse following the given structure.

Line 1: 5 syllables;	}	Poet A
Line 2: 7 syllables;
Line 3: 5 syllables;
Line 4: 7 syllables;	}	Poet B
Line 5: 7 syllables.

There is no set rhyme scheme.
