7. Premier League - Globalisation

PREMIER LEAGUE GOALSCORER NATIONALITIES

Complete the table by counting the number of countries per continent with a goalscorer (Blue), the number without (Black) and then working out the percentage of countries in the continent with a goalscorer (Blue / Blue+Black x 100)

	North America	South America	Africa	Europe	Asia	Australasia
No. of Blue
No. of Black
%age Blue

Describe the patterns shown on the map and in your table. Use data.

The Premier League is watched all over the world and attracts more global attention than any other league in the world. As a result, lots of money comes to clubs through TV rights and sponsorship meaning they can attract some of the best players in the world. Explain, using the information and your own knowledge, why you think the Premier League is so attractive to viewers around the world

8. World Cup – Understanding of the World
